HEALTH — Malpractice. Punctures in patient's heart during pacemaker implantation were not caused by machine operator.

Synopsis

Background: Patient's relatives brought action against pacemaker lead supplier, pacing system analyzer (PSA) operator, and others involved in cardiac pacemaker implantation surgery for wrongful death. The Superior Court, Alameda County, No. RG09470457, Robert Freedman, J., granted summary judgment for supplier and operator. Patient's relatives appealed.

Holdings: The Court of Appeal, Jones, P.J., held that:

- [1] relatives had ample time to conduct discovery;
- [2] perforations in patient's atrium and aorta during surgery were not result of any error or breach of duty by PSA operator; and
- [3] PSA operator did not undertake duty to monitor patient after surgery.

LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT - Unfair Labor Practices. Noncompete and nonsolicitation clauses in employment agreements were facially void.

Synopsis

Background: Current employers and employees brought action against former employer for unfair competition, seeking declaratory relief. Former employer cross-complained for unfair competition. The Superior Court, Los Angeles County, No. BC337177, Elizabeth Allen White, J., granted declaratory judgment that former employer's noncompete and nonsolicitation clauses were void, but did not grant permanent injunction against attempting to enforce noncompete clauses against other California employees. All parties appealed.

Holdings: The Court of Appeal, Doi Todd, Acting P.J., held that:

[1] noncompete clause was facially void restriction on employees' practice of their chosen profession, and [2] nonsolicitation clause was facially void restriction on employees' practice of their chosen profession. Affirmed.

United States District Court, W.D. New York. June 30, 2016 193 F.Supp.3d 218 2016 WL 3547932

COMMERCIAL LAW — Warranties. Absent allegations of any personal representation by manufacturer, recipient of defibrillator failed to state claim for breach of express warranty.

Synopsis

Background: Recipient of implantable cardiac defibrillator brought action in state court against manufacturer of defibrillator, alleging, inter alia, strict liability for manufacturing defect, negligent manufacturing, negligent and strict liability failure to warn, and negligent representation. Following removal, manufacturer moved to dismiss for failure to state a claim, moved for sanctions, and moved to strike amended complaint.

Holdings: The District Court, Michael A. Telesca, J., adopting in part and rejecting in part report and recommendation of Hugh B. Scott, United States Magistrate Judge, 2015 WL 902616, held that: [1] breach of express warranty claim under New York law was expressly preempted by Medical Device Amendments (MDA) to Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA); [2] recipient failed to state claim for breach of express warranty under New York law; [3] recipient failed to state claim for strict liability, negligent manufacturing, and breach of implied warranty under New York law; and [4] allegations based on information and belief were not supported by sufficient factual allegations, as required to avoid dismissal.

Court of Appeal, Second District, Division 7, California. March 09, 1998 61 Cal.App.4th 1384 72 Cal.Rptr.2d 188

LITIGATION - Judgment. Client not entitled to relief from judgment on third-party claim under attorney fault statute based on attorney's neglect in adequately preparing for evidentiary hearing.

Synopsis

Creditor filed verified third-party claim with levying officer in which it alleged superior interest or lien in funds that had been garnished by plaintiff pursuant to writ of attachment. After hearing was held on third-party claim in underlying breach of contract action against debtor, the Superior Court, Los Angeles County, No. BC136494, Arnold Levin, Temporary Judge, denied third-party claim and subsequently denied motion to set aside its judgment under attorney fault provision of Code of Civil Procedure. Creditor appealed from order denying its motion to set aside. The Court of Appeal, Lillie, P.J., held that: (1) order denying motion to vacate judgment under attorney fault provision was appealable; (2) attorney's affidavit of fault did not place judgment within mandatory provisions of statute as creditor had been afforded its day in court; and (3) court did not abuse its discretion in denying relief under discretionary portion of attorney fault provision.

71. Edwards v. Arthur Andersen LLP

Supreme Court of California August 07, 2008 44 Cal.4th 937 189 P.3d 285

COMMERCIAL LAW - Contracts. There is no "narrow restraint" exception to the general rule voiding noncompetition agreements.

Synopsis

Background: After refusing to execute termination of noncompete agreement (TONC) as condition of hire with company that bought his employer's business, former accounting employee brought action against former employer for intentional interference with prospective economic advantage and violation of the Cartwright Act. The Superior Court, Los Angeles County, No. BC294853, Andria K. Richey, J., sustained employer's demurrer to Cartwright Act claim, and subsequently entered judgment for employer on interference claim. Employee appealed. The Court of Appeal affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded. The Supreme Court granted review, superseding the opinion of the Court of Appeal.

Holdings: The Supreme Court, Chin, J., held that:

- [1] noncompetition agreement between parties was invalid;
- [2] there is no “narrow restraint” exception to general rule voiding noncompetition agreements, disapproving Boughton v. Socony Mobil Oil Co., 231 Cal.App.2d 188, 41 Cal.Rptr. 714, and King v. Gerold, 109 Cal.App.2d 316, 240 P.2d 710;
- [3] demand that employee execute TONC as consideration for release from invalid agreement could support liability for interference with prospective economic advantage; but
- [4] TONC waiver did not encompass unwaivable employee indemnity rights.

Affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded.

Opinion, 47 Cal.Rptr.3d 788, superseded.

Court of Appeal, Second District, California. March 22, 2001 87 Cal.App.4th 1235 105 Cal.Rptr.2d 265

ANTITRUST - Noncompete Agreements. Comity did not require deference to courts in state of out-of-state former employer.

Synopsis

Employee's new employer in California brought state court action in California for declaratory judgment that the covenant not to compete that employee had signed with former, Minnesota employer was unenforceable. Two days later, Minnesota employer filed suit in Minnesota, and eventually, Minnesota employer obtained restraining order prohibiting California employer from pursuing the first-filed California action. The Superior Court, Los Angeles County, No. BC231335, Richard P. Kalustian, J., issued restraining order prohibiting Minnesota employer from pursuing the second-filed Minnesota action. Minnesota employer appealed and petitioned for writ of mandate to compel the Superior Court to continue the trial in the California action. The Court of Appeal, Miriam A. Vogel, J., held that principles of comity did not require the California courts to defer to the Minnesota courts in the Minnesota employer's second-filed action.

Order affirmed; petition denied.

Court of Appeal, Second District, Division 2, California. January 17, 2006 135 Cal.App.4th 827 37 Cal.Rptr.3d 759

LITIGATION - Injunction. Trial court could not enjoin former employer from enforcing noncompetitive agreement in any other courts.

Synopsis

Background: Former employees obtained temporary restraining order (TRO) in the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, No. BC337177, Dzintra Janavs, J., prohibiting former employer from commencing or taking any action to enforce any noncompetition agreement or restrictive covenant against former employees in any court other than the Los Angeles County Superior Court or federal court in the State of California. Former employer petitioned for a writ of mandate.

Holdings: The Court of Appeal, Doi Todd, J., held that

- [1] TRO violated rules of judicial restraint and comity, and
- [2] abridged right to bring in personam actions in federal courts.

Writ granted.

84. Alfred E. Mann Foundation for Scientific Research v. Cochlear Corp.

United States District Court, C.D. California. March 31, 2015 96 F.Supp.3d 1028 2015 WL 1470883

PATENTS - Medical Devices and Procedures. Claims in a patent related to cochlear implant technology was invalid as indefinite.

Synopsis

Background: Owner of patents related to cochlear implant technology brought infringement action against competitors.

Holdings: Following jury trial on infringement and invalidity, and bench trial on estoppel, laches, inequitable conduct, and indefiniteness, the District Court, Fernando M. Olguin, J., held that:
[1] patent owner was not estopped from bringing infringement claim against competitor under doctrine of equitable estoppel;
[2] patent owner's four year delay in bringing patent infringement suit was not unreasonable;
[3] competitor failed to establish that owner engaged in inequitable conduct in prosecution;
[4] patent owner was not foreclosed under presumption of prosecution history estoppel from arguing that "displaying" step in claim was met under doctrine of equivalents; and
[5] patent claims were invalid as indefinite.
Ordered accordingly.
